Yup, just as I figured... Not clue! Just kidding.

I will call you on Wednesday if that's alright to go over some of the numbers..... I saw that the doctor's rate of error on one of them is -545.98 which is due to the 38.3 that he used. Did you see any other mistakes?

Did you go over your calculations?

I just wanted to go over with you the SEM and CI's with you if that's cool.....

Thanks for your help!

This will make more sense when you see the actually hand calculations.

Annie's Values:

Std dev: 45.00

SEM: 14.24

95% CI range: 22.19 to 24.20 grams

99% CI range: 21.87 to 24.52 grams

Dr. Benjamin's Values:

Std dev: 197.03

SEM: 62.35

95% CI range: 16.63 to 25.43 grams

99% CI range: 15.24 to 26.82 grams

Thx,

Annie
